2013 Theme:

Joy: Still a Gift of the Spirit

On the Theme: In times like these, that can be confusing, difficult and dark, we would like to raise up the idea that Joy is also there for us. It is not only a possibility but even an expectation of a life lived in the Spirit.

On Wednesday night our speaker will be Helene Pollock. Helene comes to us with 30 years' experience in the Quaker world, including 18 years in the Quaker Affairs Office at Haverford College. Having cultivated connections with all the branches of Friends, she is currently helping to set up a new Quaker group in Philadelphia, the Friends of Jesus Fellowship. Prior involvements include a project with Guatemalan Quakers in Philadelphia (EFCI), work with AFSC, FCNL and the Friends Association for Higher Education, workshop leadership at the FGC Gathering, and the development of a curriculum on Early Friends that was used by Columbia Meeting. Helene has attended the ILYM Women's Weekend and has visited several ILYM meetings.

Thursday evening we are being treated to a panel discussion by Adult Young Friends of ILYM. They will share with us their perceptions of how growing up among us has shaped them, how they feel their lives at this time are informed by their Quakerism and their visions for the future of Quakerism.

On Saturday evening we will hear from Brian Drayton. Brian is a member of Weare (NH) Monthly Meeting in New England Yearly Meeting. He is a plant ecologist working in science education research. Brian has traveled extensively among Friends, with a particular concern to encourage ministering Friends. He has given many workshops, retreats and addresses on topics in Quaker history and belief for Friends meetings and retreat centers. His On Living With a Concern for Gospel Ministry has been among the best selling Quaker books of the past few years. More recent writings include the Pendle Hill pamphlets Getting Rooted and James Nayler Speaking, and 'Climate change a spiritual challenge' and 'On becoming again a witnessing people': Two letters to New England Friends.

Sarah Pavlovic of Duneland Friends Meeting will give our Plummer Lecture. Sarah has been a devoted member of our Yearly Meeting for more than two decades.

REGISTRATION IS DUE BY JUNE 5!

ILLINOIS YEARLY MEETING (ILYM) INFORMATION

ILYM is a community of approximately 200 people gathering at the beautiful Illinois Yearly Meetinghouse and grounds, which are surrounded, to the horizon, by corn and soybean fields. On the south side of “Quaker Lane” is the meetinghouse, parking areas, several large tents, a farmhouse and several outbuildings. The tents are used for the children’s programs, workshops and outdoor dining.

On the north side of the road are another parking area, a campground, including 6 small cabins and buildings used for High School and Middle School Young Friends. There is also a showerhouse in the campground.

The Yearly Meeting is planned and managed by volunteers so we ask everyone to pitch in. All Friends over age 10 are asked to sign up for at least two volunteer jobs during ILYM, which might include serving at a meal, cleaning a bathroom, or helping the baby-sitters or children’s program. There is a volunteer signup chart near the registration table.

Please do not bring pets. Do not smoke in the buildings or on the grounds (including campground). Keep noisy activities away from Friends who need quiet, and respect the surrounding farm crops and property.

DIRECTIONS: The meetinghouse address is: 14365 N. 350th Ave., McNabb, IL 61335.

From Champaign-Urbana: Take I-74 west to Bloomington-Normal, then I-39 north to Rt. 18 west. Near Magnolia, take Rt. 89 north. After Edgewood Park Golf Club on the left, turn right at the “Friends Meetinghouse” sign (Co. Rd. 350N). After about ½ mile the meetinghouse is a large white building on your right.

From St. Louis: Take I-55 north to Bloomington/Normal, then I-39 north. From here, same as from Champaign-Urbana.

From Chicago: Take I-80 west past Ottawa, then I-39 south to Rt. 71 west, then Rt. 89 south. Go past McNabb about 1½ miles, and look for the “Friends Meetinghouse” sign at the first cross-street, Co. Rd. 350N. Turn left. The meetinghouse will be on your right in about ½ mile.

FEES: The fee structure is a simple per day (24-hour period), per adult fee that reflects the actual cost of running the yearly meeting. We do not charge for children 18 and under. The fee is $36.00 per day/adult for a total of 4 possible days. There are no half days.

FEE REDUCTIONS: No one should hesitate to attend ILYM for financial reasons. Monthly Meetings may be a source of financial aid for individuals and families. Indicate the amount that you can afford to pay and plan to join us. Funds are available for hotel lodging for people who have disabilities which make it difficult to stay in the campground or in the cabins.

WHAT TO BRING: Musical instruments, recreational equipment, clothes for active wear, bathing suit, towel, mosquito repellent, sunscreen, flashlight, rain gear, linens for cabins. Showers are available for bathing. Coin-op laundry is available in Spring Valley.

PHONE: The Meetinghouse & Clear Creek House number is 815-882-2214. Outgoing calls must be calling card or collect only.

EMERGENCIES: Dial 911 for emergencies. St. Margaret’s Hospital is in Spring Valley: emergency number is 815-664-1464. Spring Valley is North on Rt. 89. There are several medical clinics in the area. Information will be available in handouts at annual sessions.

ACCESSIBILITY: The Meetinghouse has a ramped entrance and a wheelchair accessible restroom. The showerhouse in the camping area is also accessible, but you must go through a grassy area to get to it. The dining room is in the basement and is not wheelchair accessible but meals can be served elsewhere. Clear Creek House is wheelchair accessible.

MARKETPLACE: From Fri. afternoon to Sun. morning individuals who wish to bring items to sell may do so. Vendors must provide their own tables, etc. The indoor display area is for Quaker organizations and committees only.

BOOKSTORE: There will not be an FGC Bookstore this year. Instead, in that space, there will be Book Sharing (see next item).

BOOK SHARING: ILYM attendees are invited to bring books that they have read and found spiritually nourishing during the past year. Children’s books are welcome. Attendees may peruse the Book Sharing display for good reads. The book display will be monitored, and books will not leave the display area. Please be sure your name is written inside the front cover.

TECHNOLOGY: There are no duplicating facilities or fax machines available. Please bring what you will need. There is wireless internet available. The password will be displayed near the registration desk. Please disconnect when not using as space is limited.

VARIETY SHOW: Saturday afternoon is our annual variety show. No talent required. This is a supportive group that is easily amused.

PARKING: Parking is available for campers along the north side of the road and extends the whole length of the campground. We ask that cars parked in this area be along the road (away from the tents). There is additional parking on the south side of the road between the meetinghouse and Clear Creek House. Cars parked on the Meetinghouse grounds become dangerous obstructions. However, a few spaces are marked for Friends with disabilities, and teachers can park their cars near the classroom tents in the mornings.

NEW ATTENDERS MEETINGS: New attenders meetings to help orient Friends new to ILYM will take place on Wednesday at the end of the evening program and Saturday at breakfast time. Please gather at the registration table. You will meet with members of Ministry and Advancement Committee. If you need help or information at any other time, those handling registration will be glad to assist.

TIPS FOR FAMILIES WITH YOUNG CHILDREN: You can bring your smaller children to the dining room 5 minutes before scheduled mealtimes to eat or you may go to the head of the line. It is hard for small children to wait in line when they are hungry. We suggest that you bring drinks and non-perishable snacks for times your children may be hungry or thirsty and perhaps a breakfast food if your children find it hard to get up in time for breakfast in the dining room.

REDUCE DIRTY DISHES: Bring your own coffee cup to ILYM.

LODGING INFORMATION

Camping: There is a campground on the north side of the road. There will be some additional "primitive" camping on the new property this year. There will be one port-a-potty and campers in this area will need to use the showerhouse in the other campground for all other needs. Children should not camp in this area because of safety hazards in area outbuildings. If you want to camp and need electricity, please let the registrar know. Cords on the ground can be a hazard, so you will need to camp near an electrical outlet.

Cabins: There are 6 cabins with room for 8 people each in bunkbeds. Cabins have no electricity. They may be filled to capacity depending on demand. Individuals with specific needs (e.g., mobility issues, small children, can't camp, other special reasons) will be given preference for cabins (assigned by registrar). If you have a special reason for needing a cabin, please let us know.

High School Bunkhouse: There is also a large bunkhouse which can hold up to 40 high school Friends and chaperones only.

Clear Creek House: There are 6 rooms in the Clear Creek House for up to 15 people with a need for a quiet and/or air conditioned space. As with the cabins, individuals with specific needs will be given preference (assigned by registrar). Rooms may be shared.

Motels: Available Off-Site Housing as of April 1. Rates listed are for 2 persons in 2 beds. Prices are subject to change and do not include tax.

WORKSHOPS

Unless otherwise indicated, workshops are suitable for all interested Friends and you are welcome to join in a workshop starting on any date. “Continuing” workshops will not repeat from the previous day, while “repeat” workshops will start afresh. The workshop list may change before annual sessions. It is posted (with more complete descriptions) at: www.ilym.org/2013AnnualSessions. Sign up for workshops on site at yearly meeting.

Bible Explorations, Maurine Pyle, Lucy Davenport, Dave Moorman
Friends will take part in discussions of the Bible. The discussions may spontaneously take a number of forms. This year we will be joined by Lucy Davenport, who has studied the use of the Bible by early Friends. The early Friends are folks like George Fox and Margaret Fell, who brought the Quaker way into being during the 17th century in England. (Thurs. and Fri., Repeats)

Engaging in Conversations about Race, Class and White Culture, Vanessa Jule

We will spend time in both small and large groups identifying and exploring race, class and White Culture in our country and the Religious Society of Friends. We will spend time understanding the origins of White Culture, and class. We will also learn about Racial Microaggressions and other behaviors and their impact on our daily lives. We will also talk about ways to combat racism and classism. (Thurs., Fri. and Sat., Continuing)

Freedom AND Friendship: Building Joyful Bridges with the Black Community, Bonni McKeown

This workshop goes beyond the debate over why more African Americans aren't Quakers. Instead it asks: how can we work together toward common goals? This workshop will present grassroots Black Community leaders – different individuals each day – who will discuss their lives and work. Through dialog we aim to build long term F(f)riendships and alliances. (Thurs., Fri. and Sat., Continuing)

What Should We Do With an Old Barn?, Bill Howenstine

We will meet on the north side of the old, large wood barn, look at it thoroughly (inside and out), hear something about its history and about uses made of similar old, timber frame barns. Perhaps we will feel led to make recommendations for ILYM. Lots of discussion and brainstorming. (Thurs., Fri. and Sat., Continuing)

A Quaker Behind the Dream: Charlie Walker and the Civil Rights Movement, Brenda Walker Beadenkopf

This workshop is based on an upcoming book about Philadelphia Quaker pacifist Charlie Walker and his many contributions to the Civil Rights Movement as an expert trainer in nonviolence. It begins with a PowerPoint talk. Then we will move into role-playing. Questions are raised as to how these ‘benchmarks’ and disciplines of non-violence could be viewed as practical applications of the teachings of Jesus and how they can be applied to everyday life. (Fri. and Sat.)

The Joy(s) of Ministry Committee, Judy Wolicki, Wil Brant
A consultation among new, seasoned, and potential members of Monthly Meetings Ministry Committees, to be facilitated by members of ILYM's Ministry and Advancement Committee, this workshop will provide an opportunity for discussion and sharing on the mission, charge, and work of Ministry Committees to encourage and support those who do the work, and to explore the larger vision of Ministry Committees. (Fri. and Sat.)

Circle for Spirit-Led Activism, Tom Fairbank

We will discuss how Spirit is leading us to live out our testimonies, with an emphasis on social justice. The session will begin and end with silence. Discussion will use a circle format in which a talking piece is rotated to allow each participant space to share what is on their heart, as well as to aid us in listening to each other. (Sat. only)

Made Me a Communist: A Theo-Political Love Story, Charley Earp

The ongoing economic crisis is confirming predictions of capitalism's instability that gave rise to the idea of Communism as originally a Christian idea later taken on by secular political movements. Occupy Wall Street in particular challenged the existing economic order and was a significant inspiration for calling for a rethinking of the lost tradition of religious communism. (Sat. only)

First Day School Joys and Challenges: A Strategy for Small Meetings and Beyond, Erin Taylor, Sean West

One of the biggest challenges for Quakers is creating a children's program that makes families feel welcome, takes the spiritual needs of the youngest Friends seriously, and does these things without overtaxing parents and others called upon to teach First Day School. In this workshop, the Macomb Worship Group will share their Religious Education strategy and lead a brainstorming session for meeting the First Day School challenge. (Day(s) TBA)

The Joys of Bolivian-U.S. Quaker Collaboration, Barbara Stanford

The Bolivian Quaker Education Fund brings together Quakers from different continents from very different cultural backgrounds, and very different Quaker traditions. The leaders will share their own spiritual journeys learning the life of the spirit through collaboration. Participants will share joys and challenges by discussing case studies of issues faced by Quakers in both countries ranging from theological differences to environmental issues to family violence. (Day(s) TBA)

Worship Sharing Queries

- * What brings you joy?
- * Describe a joy-bringer: This could be a person, activity, item, place, moment in time, or other...
- * What can we do together, now, to practice and cultivate joy?
- * How do we prepare ourselves so that we are open to spontaneous joy?
- * How do we cultivate joy in our children and other young people?
- * What resources, including texts, songs, and images, can we recommend to one another to nurture a sense of joy?
- * What “joy resource kit” do we have to offer one another today?
- * Describe the absence of joy or the opposite(s) of joy in your experience
- * What relationships do you see between suffering and/or struggle and joyfulness?

YOUNG FRIENDS PROGRAM

WEE FRIENDS THROUGH MIDDLE SCHOOL

MORNING PROGRAM:

- During the morning business sessions on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, a planned program for all children, organized into appropriate age groups, will be provided. These programs are designed to be meaningful while giving children a chance to connect with other Friends in their age groups. The typical age groups are: 0-2, 3-5, 6-8, 9-11, Middle School (MS). The exact age is not as important as a comfortable level for the child.
- Parents are asked to sign their children in and out of the program daily. Please pick children up by noon.

AFTERNOON PROGRAM:

- There is an informal craft tent set up during worship sharing and workshops. All ages may drop in and do a craft or play a game.
- Babysitting is available for ages 0-6 at the Wee Friends tent area.

EVENING PROGRAMS:

- Each night a different program will be offered for children. There will be some adult chaperones available. Parents should bring special supervising needs to the attention of the chaperones. Babysitting is available for ages 0-6 (except Friday during dancing).

BABYSITTING

Child care will be provided for children age 6 and under during all adult programs (not during Friday night dancing). Look for the babysitters near the Wee Friends tent and play area to the west of the meetinghouse.

RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES

Recreational activities are planned and posted. Parents are expected to chaperone or arrange a chaperone for their children as needed.

HIGH SCHOOL (HS)

The Youth Oversight Committee and High School age Friends (entering grade 10 through 2013 high school graduates) plan their program.

ADULT YOUNG FRIENDS (AYF)

The Adult Young Friends of ILYM are a group of 18 to 35 year olds led to maintain a sense of community among individuals who often find themselves in a transitional period in their lives. AYFs consider themselves a subgroup of the adult community of ILYM Friends, but also participate as active members in the wider ILYM community. The AYF group is in a constant state of change and development as they adjust to meet the needs of new and old members experiencing changes in their lives. They welcome new members with open arms. Contact Madelyn George at madgeorge87@gmail.com for more information.

EXPECTATIONS FOR YOUNG FRIENDS AND PARENTS

In order to make the annual session of Illinois Yearly Meeting a meaningful and spiritual experience for all Friends, youth and adults, the following expectations have been written to help young people and their parents know what is expected of them when they attend ILYM. We hope that by making these expectations clear, misunderstandings can be avoided and everyone at ILYM can have an edifying and nurturing experience.

- The F.U.N. (Friends Under Nineteen) morning program is planned assuming that all young Friends who are registered for ILYM will participate in their age group.
- Parents should notify the F.U.N. staff if their child will not attend any of the morning sessions.
- If children choose not to attend or participate in the F.U.N. program, their parents are responsible for them while the F.U.N. program is going on.
- Parents are responsible for supervising their children during all times that are not designated as F.U.N. program times.
- Parents are asked to accompany younger children to the morning program and sign them in, letting staff know where a parent will be. Parents are expected to be on the ILYM campus at all times that their children are in an ILYM program unless specific arrangements are made.
- If a child chooses not to participate in the program and is unable to refrain from disturbing others who are participating, his or her parent(s) will be sent for.
- If any young Friend has special needs (dietary, physical, emotional, behavioral, etc.) that may require special attention, please let the F.U.N. staff responsible for that age group know.
- A simple snack will be provided during the morning sessions.
- It is important for adult Friends to discipline themselves to start and finish programs promptly. If they do not, parents may have to leave the adult program before it is over. It is important for the Yearly Meeting to remember that the F.U.N. program is an integral, planned program of the Yearly Meeting and not merely a service to accommodate adults while they attend programs.
- Medical Release Forms must be filled out for all children under 18. Please mail with the registration form or bring with you to ILYM.

SITE PREPARATION HELP NEEDED

It takes a lot of work to get the ILYM site ready for the annual session. We ask that you consider how you can serve for even as little as a few hours to help get our grounds ready. Site preparation will begin on Saturday, June 15, and continue until Wednesday, when annual sessions begin. Food service starts with lunch on Saturday and ends with lunch on Wednesday. Please consider coming for a few hours, a day, or the whole time. Please let Mark McGinnis know if you are coming and how long you are staying so that food and jobs can be coordinated. Please contact Mark with this information, or with any questions you may have: clerk.UFVQM@yahoo.com or 847-697-1512.
