Acknowledged minister: A recorded minister.
Advancement: Promoting the vitality of Friends meetings or of the Quaker movement generally, including both internal community-building efforts and outreach to the broader public.
Advices: Words of advice, issued by a meeting to its constituent meetings or individual members, often in connection with queries.
Affirm: To indicate that one’s statements are true, particularly when such an indication is legally required, as when giving testimony in court. Friends generally affirm rather than swear, in accordance with Jesus’ injunction to “swear not at all,” (Matthew 5:34) and to avoid the implication that lies are more acceptable if not sworn to.
After the manner of Friends: Done in harmony with Quaker principles; following Quaker practice.
AFSC (American Friends Service Committee): a Quaker organization devoted to service, development, and peace programs throughout the world.
Allowed meeting: A recognized meeting.
Associate membership: A form of membership accorded in some meetings to children, differing from ordinary membership in that it expires at a certain age, normally in early adulthood.
As way opens: If and when a group or individual is spiritually prepared (for a particular course of action) and an opportunity for that action presents itself.
Attender: A person who regularly attends a Friends meeting without being a member of it.
Beanite: A Friend or meeting belonging to the tradition of Joel and Hannah Bean, 19th century ministers who founded San Jose Meeting in California. Beanite meetings are typically unprogrammed, liberal, independent of other Friends organizations, and located in the western U.S.
Birthright Friend: A Friend whose membership was initiated at birth or adoption, by virtue of the parents already being members; or more loosely, anyone who was raised since early childhood in a Quaker setting. Used in contrast to convinced Friend.
Birthright membership: Membership in a Friends meeting which is extended automatically to children whose parents are members at the time of birth or adoption. Many meetings no longer grant birthright membership, but it was traditional to do so.
Break meeting: To end a meeting for worship, traditionally by shaking hands.
Called meeting: An “extra” meeting, in addition to those held according to the regular schedule, typically to deal with an urgent question which cannot wait for the regular business meeting.
Center down: To quiet one’s mind and settle into worship, so that one is open to the leadings of the Spirit.
Children of the Light: An early name for the Quakers.
Christ Within: The Spirit of Christ, as manifest within each person; the Spirit or Light Within.
Clearness: 1. Confidence that a decision or action is in accord with Divine will, as revealed by the Light Within. 2. Freedom from burdens, constraints or obstacles, particularly of a spiritual nature.
Clearness committee: A committee set up to assist an individual or group in seeking clearness about a decision or concern. Such committees are appointed for couples requesting marriage under the care of a meeting, and for individuals requesting membership in a meeting; they may also be organized at an individual’s request to aid in personal discernment about matters not requiring a meeting decision.

Clerk: An individual appointed by a business meeting to discern when the meeting has reached its decisions, and articulate those decisions back to the meeting for its approval. The clerk also recognizes speakers in meeting for business, signs letters and other documents on behalf of the meeting, and may have other responsibilities as the meeting assigns.

Concern: A deeply felt and spiritually-based sense that some matter requires attention.

Congregational Friends: Progressive Friends.

Conscientious objector: An individual who refuses to participate in military or other activity, on the grounds that his or her conscience will not permit it.

Conservative meeting: A meeting belonging to the tradition of those Orthodox Friends who resisted certain aspects of 19th century evangelicalism. Conservative meetings are typically unprogrammed, but more traditionalist and explicitly Christian than many other unprogrammed meetings.

Continuing revelation: The belief that God continues to guide and inform people through the Light Within, as opposed to the idea that God’s revelation was completed at some point in the past, such as with the composition of the most recent parts of the Bible.

Convinced Friend: A Friend who became a member by request, after having become convinced of the religious Truth advanced by Friends, as opposed to a birthright Friend.

Convincement: An inner conviction of the religious Truth advanced by Friends, especially as a reason for initiating membership in a Friends meeting.

Covered meeting: A gathered meeting.

Discernment: Spiritual labor to discover Divine will, especially through individual or corporate worship, in order to distinguish authentic leadings from other motivations which do not arise from the Spirit; or the outcome of such labor.

Discipline: 1. The procedures and policies by which a Friends meeting operates, including official expectations for members and constituent meetings. 2. A book outlining these policies, procedures and expectations, typically issued by a yearly meeting. Many yearly meetings have replaced their books of discipline with books entitled Faith and Practice, such as this one.

Disown: To issue a statement (by a meeting) that a particular individual is out of fellowship with Friends; to terminate a Friend’s membership for cause. Disownment is now very rare. The primary purpose of disownment is to clarify to the public that the disowned Friend’s actions are not to be regarded as those of a Friend or taken as representative of the meeting.
Disownment does not cut all ties with the individual, who normally may continue participation in meeting activities which are open to the public.

EFCI (Evangelical Friends Church International): an organization of evangelical Friends meetings throughout the world.

Elder (noun): 1. An experienced and respected Friend, especially one who exercises leadership in a meeting. 2. A Friend appointed to exercise special care toward the ministers and potential ministers of a meeting, fostering the development of their gifts, encouraging whatever in correction when ministry seems inappropriate or misguided.

Elder (verb): 1. To act as an elder. 2. To criticize or reprimand as inappropriate or un-Quakerly.

Evangelical meetings are typically pastoral and programmed. 2. A meeting affiliated with EFCI.

Exercises: The proceedings or transactions of a meeting; or more generally the course of activity in a Friends gathering, whether part of a business meeting or not. Traditionally, yearly meetings issue an annual “report of exercises” summarizing the major decisions, issues considered, ministry offered, and memorable events at that year’s gathering.

Expectant worship: Waiting worship

Facing benches: Benches at the front of a traditionally arranged Friends meeting room, facing the main body of the meeting and usually arranged on a raised gallery. Seating on the facing benches was originally intended primarily for ministers, so that they might be heard more easily when speaking; but came to include elders, clerks, and other meeting officials.

FCNL (Friends Committee on National Legislation): a U.S. Quaker lobbying organization working “to create a world free from war, a society with equity and justice for all, a community where every person’s potential may be fulfilled and an earth restored.”

Feel a stop: To sense that some contemplated decision or course of action should not go forward.

FGC (Friends General Conference): an organization of yearly meetings and other Quaker groups in the U.S. and Canada, including Illinois Yearly Meeting. Originally a Hicksite organization, FGC now includes meetings from a variety of Quaker traditions, though primarily of an unprogrammed style of worship and liberal theological perspective.

First Day: The first day of the week, more commonly called Sunday. Similarly, Second Day is the day commonly called Monday; Third Day is the day commonly called Tuesday, etc. Early Friends did not use the common names of the days of the week because most of them derive from the names of Pagan gods, in whom they did not believe; some Friends continue to have similar scruples, or use the numerical names as an expression of Quaker identity and tradition.

First Day school: A children’s program of religious instruction held on First Day, analogous to Sunday School in other denominations.

First Month: The first month of the year, more commonly called January. Similarly, Second Month is the month commonly called February; Third Month is the month commonly called March, etc. Early Friends did not use the common names of the months because most of them derive from the names of Pagan gods, in whom they did not believe; some Friends continue to have similar scruples, or use the numerical names as an expression of Quaker identity and tradition. Note: Prior to the calendar reform of 1752, First Month was the month commonly called March, Second Month was the month commonly called April, etc.

FLGBTQC (Friends for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer Concerns): a Quaker organization that affirms that of God in all people regardless of sexual orientation and gender identity.

FPT (Friends Peace Teams): a Quaker organization which develops long-term relationships with communities in conflict around the world, creating programs for peacebuilding, healing, and reconciliation.

Friend: A Quaker. Adherents to the Quaker movement have called each other “Friends” since very early in its history. A common explanation for the use of this term is that it is in reference to John 15:14–17, but there is little in early Friends writings to corroborate this.
Friends Church: 1. A Friends meeting, especially a programmed or pastoral meeting. 2. The Religious Society of Friends. Used especially by Friends belonging to programmed or pastoral meetings.

FUM (Friends United Meeting): an international organization of Friends meetings. Originally an Orthodox organization, FUM now includes meetings from a wide variety of Quaker traditions, though primarily of an explicitly Christian perspective.

FWCC (Friends World Committee for Consultation): an international organization encouraging fellowship and communication among the various branches of the Religious Society of Friends.

Gathered meeting: A meeting in which worshipping Friends feel an unusually deep, quickening sense of connection with each other through the operation of the Spirit; a meeting in which the communal character of worship is strongly or vividly perceived.

Gurneyite: A Friend or meeting in the tradition of the supporters of Joseph John Gurney in the schisms which divided Orthodox Quakerism in the mid-19th century, characterized by a relatively evangelical perspective with emphasis on the authority of the Bible, and on the atoning power of the outward, “historical” crucifixion and resurrection.

Hicksite: A Friend or meeting in the tradition of the supporters of Elias Hicks in the schism of 1827–28, characterized by a strong emphasis on doctrinal freedom and to some extent by Hicks’ theological views, which downplayed the significance of the outward, “historical” crucifixion and resurrection except as “figures” of the inward operation of Christ’s Spirit in each individual.

Hold in the Light: 1. To place mentally under the healing, beneficial influence of the Light Within; to pray for, especially wordlessly. 2. To examine or consider (a topic) with the aid of the Light Within; to consider while silencing one’s thoughts and setting aside one’s personal desires and rationalizations, in order to better discern Divine will.

Leading: A deeply felt, spiritually-based conviction, impelling one to engage in a particular course of action.

Light Within: The Divine presence held by Friends to be manifest in all people, conceptualized in a variety of ways but originally and still by many Friends identified with the Spirit of Christ. The Light Within reveals to us our true natures, makes clear to us what is right and what is wrong, leads us to act or suffer for Truth, and transforms us, as we allow it, into better people. Also referred to as the Spirit, that of God in everyone, or in a variety of other ways.

Meeting: 1. A meeting for worship, meeting for business, etc.; a gathering of Friends for religious purposes. 2. A body of Friends which holds such meetings on a regular basis.

Meeting for marriage: A wedding; especially one conducted in the manner of Friends, in which the couple marry each other without a separate officiant to marry them.

Meeting for sufferings: A body appointed to conduct business on behalf of a yearly meeting in the interim between its annual business sessions, so called because such business originally consisted primarily of action in support of Friends who were imprisoned or otherwise suffering for their religious convictions. The corresponding body in Illinois Yearly Meeting is the Continuing Committee.

Meeting for worship: A gathering for the purpose of worship, understood by Friends to be a collective waiting in silence, from which anyone present may speak as led to do so by the Spirit.

Meeting for worship with a concern for business, meeting for worship with attention to business: A Friends meeting for business. So called because Friends wait in such meetings to be guided by the Divine Spirit, just as in ordinary meetings for worship where no business is conducted.

Meeting of ministers and elders: Historically, a meeting in which the ministers and elders of a Friends community gathered on a regular basis to consider their ministry and other conduct, and respond to queries pertaining to it. Such meetings have now mostly been replaced by worship and ministry committees.

Meetinghouse: The building in which Friends hold their meetings, especially if owned by the meeting and dedicated to that purpose. Note: The body of Friends which gathers in a meetinghouse is referred to simply as a “meeting,” not as a “meetinghouse.”

Member: A person having membership in a Friends meeting, standing in a relation of mutual care and accountability with the meeting community.

Memorial Meeting: A meeting for worship held in memory of a person who has died; a Quaker memorial service.

Minister: A Friend who ministers to the spiritual needs of others, especially one who feels a long-term, ongoing call to such service and is recognized by a meeting as having a gift for such work.

Ministry: Speech or action which benefits the spiritual condition of others, such as speech offered under a sense of Divine leading in meeting for worship.

Overseer: Historically, a Friend appointed to labor with those meeting members whose conduct appeared to be inconsistent with Quaker principles, and if necessary, bring their cases to the monthly meeting. The role of overseers later evolved to the coordination of pastoral care for a meeting. Use of the term overseers for pastoral care committees is now strongly discouraged, as for some Friends this term may carry connotations connected with slavery.

Plain speech: Speech in a style conforming to Quaker ideals of simplicity, plainness and honesty: free of flattery and euphemism, with no honorific titles or honorific pronouns, and avoiding all terminology which is inconsistent with one’s religious convictions. Traditionally, plain speech was understood to require the use of the old second person singular pronoun thee and its related forms when addressing just one individual; using numerical names for the days of the week and months of the year such as First Day, First Month; and avoiding the use of certain greetings and leave-takings, such as good day and Godspeed.

Popcorn meeting: An informal term for a meeting for worship during which multiple Friends speak in quick succession, with little silence in between, especially if the speaking is regarded as excessive or as detracting from the depth of worship.

Preparative meeting: The business meeting of a single local meeting, forming part of a larger monthly meeting; or the body of Friends whose business is conducted in such a meeting.

Programmed meeting: A meeting with a set order of service, as opposed to a meeting held entirely in waiting worship.

Progressive Friends: A movement which separated from the main body of Hickite Friends in the mid-19th century, characterized by an emphasis on doctrinal freedom, local autonomy for meetings, no formal recognition of ministers or elders, and robust political engagement. Progressive Friends gradually dwindled away as a separate body, but much of their perspective and practice has been adopted into the wider Quaker world.

Public Friend: A Friend who undertakes extended ministry outside her or his home meeting.

QEW (Quaker Earthcare Witness): A network of people taking action to address the ecological and social crises of the world from a spiritual perspective emphasizing Quaker process and testimonies.

Quarterly meeting: A regional body of Friends, consisting of more than one monthly meeting and forming part of a larger yearly meeting; or the business meeting of such a body.

Query: A question, especially a question posed to guide self-examination and discernment. Nowadays queries are more often considered by meetings or individuals simply as a contemplative practice, without minuting or reporting the responses.
Quietism: A variety of Quakerism emphasizing separation from mainstream society, strict meeting discipline, and a relatively hierarchical meeting structure. Quietism was the predominant form of Quakerism through much of the 18th and 19th centuries, but the term was not introduced until later.

Stand in the way: To declare opposition on a spiritual basis to a proposal in business meeting, with the intent of stopping a decision in favor of the proposal. Standing in the way does not completely shut down the decision-making process, and normally requires taking some responsibility for helping the meeting find another way forward.

State of Society report: A report prepared by a meeting, outlining its spiritual and practical condition. In Illinois Yearly Meeting, monthly meetings prepare a State of Society report at least annually, which is read in the quarterly meeting (if any) and published in the yearly meeting minute book.

That of God in everyone: The Divine presence in all people, through which every life has value and the capacity for good; the Spirit, or Light Within.

Thee: The second person singular pronoun. Historically in English, when speaking to just one person, it was usual to address that person using the pronouns thou, thee, thy and thine. In contrast, a group was addressed using the plural pronouns ye, you, your and yours. By the time the Quaker movement began, it had become common to address a single individual using a plural pronoun as a form of honor or flattery, especially if the addressee was of higher social status than the speaker. Quakers objected to this usage as arising from a spirit of pride, and insisted on the use of thou, thee, thy and thine when addressing a single individual, regardless of social hierarchy. (In colloquial Quaker usage, thou eventually came to be replaced by thee, and the second person singular verb forms by forms similar to the third person singular.) Over the centuries, you and its related forms have gradually lost all honorific connotations, and few Friends continue to use thee and its related forms; but some do, mainly as an expression of Quaker identity and tradition.

Threshing session: A meeting in which an issue is given preliminary consideration and discussion, with no final decision expected.

Travel minute: A minute issued by a meeting, indicating that the meeting supports a particular individual as he or she travels in the ministry or under a sense of religious concern; or, a document attesting that such a minute has been approved by the meeting, which the traveling Friend carries and presents to any meetings he or she visits, as certification of the home meeting’s support.

Under the care of (a meeting): With the official support and oversight of the meeting; in a relation of mutual responsibility with the meeting.
